

Black n Blue Boys / Broken Men by Dael Orlandersmith

Who: Last Train Theatrics – A pop up theatrical production

What: Black n Blue Boys / Broken Men by Dael Orlandersmith, performed by JC Brazil

When: October 4, 2015 (One Night Only) , 7:00 pm

Where: The Pocket Theater, 8312 Greenwood Ave N, Seattle, WA 98103

Tickets start at: \$10 online; $14 at the door | Facebook

Seattle, WA – August 19, 2015: The Observer. The Orphan. The Self Made Man. The Prostitute. The Social Worker. The Pedophile. Pulitzer nominee Dael Orlandersmith unravels the grim, heartbreaking stories of 6 struggling New York men trying to find redemption through the voice of one woman. Due to graphic content, Mature Audiences Only.

Sponsored by: Seattle Office of Arts & Culture and Treehouse.

Last Train Theatrics (LTT) is a pop up theatrical passion project based on expression through emotionally moving performance that thrives on bringing society's difficult questions to the forefront.

Direction: Alejandro Stepenberg

Stage Management: Maren Comendant

Music: Robert Buckler (DJ Mugshot)

Photography: Lisa Elliot

Graphic Design: Astrid Monique Müller-Karger

Graphic Design: Charles Duval

Performance: JC Brazil

Contact: Clayton Weller | Tel: 206.257.5658 | Email: info@thepocket.org | locemote.me